

Our Impact

Amador – Calaveras – Tuolumne Territory
July 2023 – Current

"With our local volunteers and partners, the California Gold Country Region makes a lifesaving difference by providing relief, comfort, and hope to people in their darkest hours. Thank you!"

Jacquelyn M. Clites, J.D., Regional Chief Executive

Our local volunteers serve people facing emergencies every day, collect lifesaving blood, and prepare communities for disasters. Over the past eight months, in the Amador – Calaveras – Tuolumne Territory and California Gold Country Region, we have:

Responded to more than 20 home fires in the territory

Provided disaster preparedness courses to 165 individuals in the territory

Installed 307 smoke alarms in the territory

Collected 5,648 units of blood in the Gold Country Region

"I have witnessed people's heartbreak transform into hope. I am so grateful to be able to help people in need through the American Red Cross."

Thank you for your generous support, which makes our mission—alleviating human suffering in the face of emergencies—possible.

Thank you!

Disaster Action Team

Now Recruiting Members
for the California Gold Country Region!

What is a Disaster Action Team (DAT)?

The Disaster Action Team (DAT) serves as the first Red Cross contact at the scene of a disaster. As a lifeline for people facing the most difficult crisis of their lives, the Red Cross Disaster Action Team supports those affected by fires, floods and other natural or man-made disasters. The California Gold Country Region responds to a local emergency - most often house or apartment fires - an average of once every 11 hours!

These teams are providing the first steps in the recovery process for those directly impacted by a disaster. A Disaster Action Team generally consists of a team leader, team member, and one or two

Disaster Deployment

Now Recruiting Members
for the California Gold Country Region!

What is Disaster Deployment?

Large disasters that exceed the resources of the local chapter are managed and supported by the American Red Cross at a national level. Hurricanes, major flooding, tornadoes and major earthquakes generally fall into this category. Pre-trained disaster response volunteers from the California Gold Country Region may be deployed to assist with these efforts. Volunteer assignments for national responses last for a period of two to three weeks. Volunteers receive training and are assigned according to their specialty areas, which cover all aspects of the operation from logistics and mass care to client services to staffing, and public affairs..

All disaster assistance is free,
made possible by voluntary donations of time and money from people in our community.

Get a kit. Make a plan. Be informed.

It's important to prepare for possible disasters and other emergencies. Natural and human-caused disasters can strike suddenly, at anytime and anywhere. There are certain actions everyone can take that can help make a difference.

American Red Cross
California Gold Country Region

Be Red Cross Ready Checklist

- ☐ I know what emergencies or disasters are most likely to occur in my community.
- ☐ I have a family disaster plan and have practiced it.
- ☐ I have an emergency-preparedness kit.
- ☐ At least one member of my household is trained in first aid and CPR/AED.

Get a kit

- 1 gallon of water per person per day
- 3-day supply of non-perishable, easy-to-prepare food
- Medical items
- Flashlight
- Extra batteries
- Battery-powered or hand-crank radio
- Copies of personal documents
- Cell phone with chargers
- Family and emergency contact information
- Maps of the area

Make a plan

- Meet with your household members; discuss how to prepare for emergencies likely to happen where you live, learn, work and play.
- Identify responsibilities for each family member.
- Choose two places to meet, if separated by an emergency:
 - Right outside your home in case of a sudden emergency, such as fire.
 - Outside your neighborhood, in case you cannot return home or are asked to evacuate.
- Choose out-of-area emergency contact; all household members should have emergency-contact information in writing or in their cell phones.

Plan what to do if you have to evacuate

- Decide what route you would take and how you would get there.
- Practice evacuating home twice a year.
- Plan ahead for your pets. Keep a phone list of pet-friendly hotels/motels and animal shelters.

Be informed

- Identify how local authorities will notify you during a disaster and how you will get information, whether through local radio, TV or NOAA Weather Radio stations.
- Know the difference between different weather alerts, such as watches and warnings, and what actions to take in each.

To learn more about disaster preparedness, visit redcross.org/goldcountry.

Be there. Volunteer to help blood donors have a rewarding experience.

Become a Blood Donor Ambassador!

From start to finish, ambassadors provide a friendly face, whether they're greeting and registering donors at check-in or thanking them for rolling up their sleeve and donating lifesaving blood at the refreshments table.

Turn your compassion into action.

- Must be 16 years of age or older
- Must complete 2-hour online training
- Minimum 6-month commitment
- Minimum Fill 1+ shift per month
- Each shift is approximately 4-6 hours long

SERVICE TO THE ARMED FORCES

Today, as in decades past, the Red Cross continues to carry out its mission to provide humanitarian support to our military -around the clock, across the country, and around the world under a trusted symbol.

"I've been a lot of places around the world.. the Red Cross is always there."

Mark Guillemette, 21st Combat Support Hospital, Fort Hood, Texas

Red Cross services include:

- Providing emergency communication services

Assisting our military, veterans and their families 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, through sending emergency messages, meeting critical needs, and providing access to financial assistance.

- Supporting military and veteran medical facilities

Red Cross volunteers provide support in Veterans Affairs and military medical facilities around the world.

- Building strong, resilient families

The Red Cross teaches resiliency skills through three impactful programs, they help military families to handle emergencies and natural disasters wherever they are, and the Red Cross helps military families develop job skills.
